

Summer Journal

Enjoy writing in your journal over the summer! Challenge yourself to write complete sentences with your best spelling. Remember to date your work and add illustrations. Here are some ideas you might want to include, but feel free to write about any topics that interest you. Return one entry, removed from your journal, to Mrs. Slater on the first day of Second Grade.

Happy Writing!

Mrs. Dixon

- write about a trip or experience.
- write about a favorite book character.
- write a message or letter to family member or friend.
- write a menu for a family meal.
- write a list of friends, favorite foods, toys, places to go.
- write a new ending to a story.
- write your own story with beginning, middle, and end.
- write a description of a family member.
- write a grocery list and go to the store.
- write a poem or song.
- write your upper and lowercase alphabet in D'Nealian style.
- write and send a postcard to Mr. Brand telling him about a favorite book you have read this summer.